

BIG BATTLE WAS FOUGHT

Boxers and Chinese Regulars in Bloody Encounter Near Peking.

LOSS WAS VERY HEAVY

Condition of Affairs in China Creates Great Concern in Europe and America.

MEANS THE DIVISION OF CHINA

London, June 6.—[Special Cablegram]—The Central news learns that the French, Japanese, American and Russian warships at Taku have landed more troops.

Helena Ordered to Taku. Washington, June 6.—[Special Telegram]—The light draught gunboat Helena has been ordered from the Philippines to join Kempf at Taku.

All Afraid of Russia.

Shanghai, June 6.—[Special Cablegram]—The Japanese fleet has been mobilized with a view to meeting emergencies, but the British are doing nothing beyond protecting the legation at Peking. Hundreds of isolated missionaries are being abandoned to the mercies of the Chinese mobs.

The body of Missionary Robinson has been found, horribly mutilated and disemboweled. In consequence of representations by Japan, the landing of a large Russian force at Taku has been stopped. It is believed that if Russia persists in sending a big force into China a collision with Japan is inevitable.

Big Battle is Fought.

Shanghai, June 6.—[Special Cablegram]—The Boxers and Chinese regulars have fought a pitched battle near Peking. Many were killed on both sides.

Violent dissensions regarding the treatment of the Boxers is reported to exist between Generalissimo Quang Lu, who is anti-foreign in sympathies and the Prince Ching, leader of the moderate party.

Alarming State of Affairs.

Peking, June 6.—It is reported here this morning that a battle with the Boxers has begun. More troops from the foreign warships at Taku have been hurried forward within the last twelve hours, but whether they are in the fray is not now known.

Attacked at Night.

The American missionaries at Pao-Ting-Fu telegraphed at midnight to Mr. Conger, the American minister here, imploring immediate help, as they were being attacked by the Boxers. Mr. Conger immediately communicated with the tsung-li-yamen, the Chinese foreign office, which assured the envoy that it would telegraph the prefect of Pao-Ting-Fu and the viceroy of Pe-Chi-Li ordering them to protect the foreigners.

Much Indignation Felt.

Much indignation was felt here all day that this useless formality and red tape should be persisted in while American women and children were probably being murdered, with American ships no farther away than Taku. It was strongly urged that the Russian and French precedent should be followed by the American legation and a rescue party of several hundred dispatched to Pao-Ting-Fu without delay.

Engagement Has Commenced.

Taku, June 8.—To the Secretary of the Navy, Washington, D. C.: Engagement has commenced. Have landed force of fifty seamen more; battalion of marines.

Russian Troops Ordered Out.

London, June 8.—The Daily Express has a dispatch from Shanghai, dated Tuesday, which says:

"Russian troops have been ordered from Port Arthur to the neighborhood of Peking to punish the Boxers for killing two Cossacks and wounding two."

A dispatch to the Daily Mail from Tien Tsin, says:

"The situation is serious. The Boxers are approaching Tien Tsin on all sides."

Boxers Are Near Tien Tsin.

The Shanghai correspondent of the Daily Mail, telegraphing yesterday:

"The Boxers are within three miles of Tien Tsin. In addition to the marines the defensive force includes volunteers under the command of Major Higges, late of the Sixteenth Lancers. The town is practically under arms."

The Berlin correspondent of the Daily Chronicle says: "In official circles here it is believed that the situation in China has grown worse. The powers are now exchanging dispatches regarding the appointment of a single commander for the united European and American squadron."

Berlin Officials Alarmed.

Berlin, June 6.—The latest news regarding the Boxers has reached here by both private and official telegrams, all of which think the situation black and alarming. The German Foreign office considers a reconte between the Boxers and Russians an event probably fraught with the greatest danger. News has also reached here that several German and Catholic missionaries in the Province of Shan Tung have been pillaged by mobs supposed to have been incited by the Boxer agitation.

Situation Extremely Grave.

Washington, June 6.—[Special Telegram]—The secretary of state this morning cabled Conger at Peking to co-operate with Kempf and use every endeavor to protect the legation of American residents. Similar orders were sent by Long to Kempf, who was assured he would be supplied by the necessary force to handle the situation which is considered grave in the extreme.

Japan is Eager to Fight.

London, June 6.—[Special Cablegram]—The latest telegrams from China tend to confirm the opinion of diplomats that sooner or later Russia's shadow would rise over the Boxers crisis. Japan is eager to fight and counts more or less on England's support against Russia.

HAS REACHED CRITICAL POINT.

Washington Thinks the Situation in China is Very Serious.

Washington, D. C., June 6.—The situation in China has now reached a critical point, as shown by dispatches received from Minister Conger at Peking and Rear Admiral Kempf at Taku.

May Send the Helena.

Secretary Long has cabled Rear Admiral Kempf for more specific information. If the gunboat Helena is available at Manila it will doubtless be sent, as it was built especially for Chinese waters. Drawing but nine feet of water it can go up the Pei-Ho to Tien Tsin, the head of navigation, and from which point Peking is reached.

In diplomatic circles the situation is viewed as extremely grave, inasmuch as the indications are now strong that the Chinese Empire is about to be cut up.

Getting Battleships Ready.

The battleships Indiana and Massachusetts, now at League Island navy yard, are being placed in commission with all possible dispatch, and will be rushed to Newport, where they have been ordered to be attached to the North Atlantic squadron not later than June 13.

The Kearsarge has also been ordered to join the squadron, but it will not be rushed.

United States Holds Aloof.

Coming as this does right on the eve of the threatening situations in the far East, more than ordinary attention has been attracted to the plying of these big battleships in commission and with such haste. Administration officials insist that in no event will the United States take any part in any conflict in Chinese waters. Such a demonstration cannot be without its effect, however.

Chinese Empire in Danger.

It is a serious question whether the powers converting portions of China can accomplish the partition of China without friction. If the China Gazette is correct in saying that the Empress Dowager has disclosed her hand and is now known to be lending support to the Boxers, the integrity of China is seriously menaced, in the opinion of diplomats who are closely following events in the Orient. If this be true, they say that the operations of the Boxers mean more than a mere domestic disturbance and becomes a movement with which the imperial army may not be able to cope. Washington officials are aware of the danger that immediately threatens the legation at Peking and the American citizens in the zone of trouble.

CHINA DEFIES ALL EUROPE.

Empress Dowager Orders the Tsung-Li-Yamen Not to Interfere.

Shanghai, June 6.—The China Gazette says it has the highest authority for stating that the dowager empress has ordered the tsung-li-yamen to face all Europe rather than to interfere with the Boxer movement.

Elsewhere it is asserted that the viceroy has ordered troops to oppose the further landing of parties from foreign warships and that the troops now engaged in operations are designed to prevent further foreign reinforcements reaching Peking.

A number of desperadoes, disguised as passengers, but acting like a band of pirates, have looted the British Yang-Tse steamer Kutwo. They committed wholesale robberies, terrorizing the passengers, who were quite unable to offer resistance. The thieves escaped with their booty.

A WHITE WOMAN GRABS THE BADGE

COLOR LINE IS CAUSING TROUBLE IN MILWAUKEE.

Handsomen Bay State Octoroon Refuses to Surrender Her Rights—Is a Member of a Colored Woman's Club but is Not Recognized by Credentials Committee.

Milwaukee, Wis., June 6.—When Mrs. Josephine St. Pierre Ruffin, the colored delegate from Massachusetts presented her credentials from the New Era club of Boston, the bit of blue ribbon signifying that she had the right to sit in the councils of the General Federation of Women's Clubs was issued to her. After the ribbon was actually in her hands, the members of the credentials committee noticed that Mrs. Ruffin was an octoroon. They immediately requested her to return the ribbon. Mrs. Ruffin, who is a handsome and dignified woman of about 50 years of age, politely but firmly declined.

"Why should I return the ribbon?" "Surely I am entitled to it. My credentials are regular and have been so declared by you, have they not?"

Made a Grab at 'Ribbon.'

This reply staggered the committee for a moment. Then one of the members advanced toward Mrs. Ruffin and said in a threatening tone:

"I hope you do not intend to wear that badge."

"I certainly shall wear it," replied Mrs. Ruffin, beginning to fasten it on her gown.

"In the interests of peace I hope you will not try to be seated," exclaimed the member, advancing nearer.

The colored woman read the purpose of the white woman in her eyes and closed her hand firmly on the bit of ribbon just as the other made a quick grab at it. The white woman's hand closed not on the ribbon but on the other's hand. The colored woman shook off her grasp.

"In the interests of peace," she retorted, "I sincerely hope you will not try to take off this badge."

Planned It on Her Bosom.

The white woman did try to wrest the ribbon from the colored woman's grasp, but she did not succeed. Mrs. Ruffin succeeded in fastening it to her dress. Then she faced the credentials committee.

"There!" she exclaimed. "I have pinned it on my bosom. There it stays."

Then the insulted representative of the Massachusetts Press association, the state federation of clubs and the New Era club, swept down the steps leading from the gallery of the Hotel Pfister, where the biennial headquarters are situated, and returned to her room at the Plankinton to await results.

Mrs. Ruffin is really a beautiful woman in the prime of life. Her skin is very light and clear and she has a deep color in her cheeks. Her hair, which is prematurely white, is worn in a pompadour. She dresses charmingly and has a fine figure. Her presence is stately and she has a voice of unusual sweetness.

Begged Her Not to Talk.

In the course of the afternoon Mrs. Ruffin was visited by many of the southern delegates who implored her not to make a scandal. One of them, Mrs. J. Lindsey Johnson, begged for peace with all the eloquence that has made her famous as a club woman.

Mrs. Ruffin was inflexible. She responded in a calm and icy tone that she was the sort of woman that loved peace—even if she had to fight to get it.

Sympathy For Mrs. Ruffin.

Outside of club circles there is much sympathy for the pretty woman from Boston who is barred out simply because her face has a creamy olive tint. A number of women who are not club women are talking of giving Mrs. Ruffin a reception before she leaves the city, but this project has not as yet taken any definite form.

Beginning of the Session.

All these things were talked about yesterday "between times," for the biennial has opened and there are other things worth while. She women were told that Milwaukee had been waiting for this year and that many latch keys were waiting for them. They heard of it at the Alhambra theater and they went down in their prettiest gowns. They took off their hats and waved their handkerchiefs at David S. Rose, mayor, as he said: "All is you's. Come again; come often."

They applauded Mrs. Sarah Platt Decker of Denver whenever she spoke or moved, and they saluted Mrs. Rebecca D. Lowe, their president, as she came forward. Her slight, resolute figure, her well-poised head and graceful gestures marked her a leader of America's best product of womankind. She stood in a bower of peonies, palms and wild flowers, wearing a rich black gown and speaking so that the 2,500 auditors could nod and smile.

Fond du Lac, Wis., June 6.—The delegates to the convention of Catholic benevolent societies of Wisconsin today attended pontifical high mass, celebrated by Archbishop Katzer of Milwaukee. The sermon was preached by the Rev. M. J. Lochmes, president of the Pionomo college of St. Francis' seminary. He especially dwelt upon the patriotism of the Catholics, and said each man's motto should be: "For God, church and country."

This year he hopes to make it four, in order to equal the record of Willie Park, Tom Morris, Sr., and Tom Morris, Jr., the previous British champions. There is a total of eighty-four entries for this year's meeting, the largest number since the tourney was inaugurated.

MEXICAN BANDITS TORTURE.

French Traveler Hung Up by Thumbs and Riddled with Bullets.

City of Mexico, June 6.—Owing to the active exertions of the federal government, the mysterious murder of two Frenchmen traveling in the loneliest part of the state of Guerrero has been cleared up. MM. Courmont and Depin went together into the state to look for investments and took with them considerable cash. It now develops that the travelers were assassinated as a result of a plot to rob them. The plot, in which minor local authorities and one functionary of higher standing were implicated, was laid in the small town of Copallillo. The mayor, Francisco Sanchez, an Indian, was a participant. The guide of the Frenchmen, Ceresencio Alumbre, also was concerned.

Soon an armed band came up and opened fire on the Frenchmen. The guide, Alumbre, by a retaliatory accident, being the first to fall. The assassins continued to fire, killing Depin and wounding Courmont in the legs. The Indians made Courmont walk to the top of a neighboring mountain, and when he told them he was unable to walk and begged them to give him a horse they abused and beat him. During the night they continued to torture him, and the following day, Sept. 17, 1899, they suspended him by his thumbs to a tree and riddled him with bullets.

Kern's speech of acceptance mentioning Bryan aroused great enthusiasm. The resolutions re-affirm the Chicago platform instruct for Bryan; condemn imperialism; denounce withholding independence from the Cubans; sympathy for Boers is expressed; censures the Hay-Pauncefote treaty and demand that the tariff be taken from trust made goods.

CONGRESS ADJOURNS

First Session of Fifty-Sixth Congress Passes Into History.

AT WORK ALL NIGHT

Practically All the Questions Pending Were Acted Upon Before the Close.

HORSEPLAY IN THE HOUSE

Washington, June 6.—[Special Telegram]—The first session of the Fifty-sixth congress passed into history at three o'clock today.

In order to accomplish this both houses remained at work all night until three o'clock this morning.

As a result of the work last night practically all the pending questions have been passed upon.

At eight o'clock the final conference report on the general deficiency bill was adopted. The sundry civil bill was taken up at nine thirty o'clock. It carries sixty-five million dollars.

In the senate at 9 o'clock the conference report on the naval appropriation bill was laid before the senate and adopted.

At twelve fifteen o'clock the president and members of the cabinet arrived at the capitol and immediately went to the president's room on the senate side for the purpose of signing belated bills.

In All-Night Session.

Washington, June 6.—[Special Telegram]—Both houses of congress held all-night sessions.

At 1 o'clock a. m. there were two appropriation bills upon which there had not been agreement—the Naval and General Deficiency bills. All conference reports except that on the Sundry Civil bill had been agreed to and that was being considered in the senate. It was expected there would be no difficulty in reaching an agreement on the General Deficiency bill. The Naval bill is the only one over which there is a disagreement.

The disagreement on the Naval bill relates to armor, the house refusing to concede.

To Survey Milwaukee Harbor.

The Emergency River and Harbor bill was agreed to this morning. This provides for a survey of the Great lakes, and also contains appropriations for a survey of Milwaukee harbor and for improvements at Ashland, Wis.

The conference report on the Neeley extradition bill was adopted.

The most important bill agreed to was the military academy measure. It now goes to the president. The conference report was a complete agreement, the house receding from the senate amendments for the promotion of Gen. Miles and Gen. Corbin and making a compromise provision relative to West Point cadets, increasing the number by two from each state at large or a total increase of 100.

Indulged in Horse Play.

Many members of the house early this morning left the chambers, a call developing the presence of only 113 members. A resolution was adopted to arrest absentees. While awaiting the appearance of absentees the members indulged in considerable horseplay on the floor. Others congregated in the lobbies and made the corridors ring with their songs.

DEWEY ON HIS TRIP WEST

Will be Entertained at Columbus, Detroit and Grand Rapids.

Washington, D. C., June 6.—Admiral Dewey left here last night by the Baltimore & Ohio for his trip to Columbus, Detroit and Grand Rapids. With him were Mrs. Dewey, Lieutenant Caldwell, and J. H. Maddy, representing the railroad company.

On the center window of each of the cars of the train was a miniature admiral's flag, with its four stars on the field of blue, the only decorative feature on the train. A crowd of several hundred people saw the party off. The trip west is simply a social one, and according to the admiral has no political significance.

Death of Colonel McMyrn.

Madison, June 6.—Col John G. McMyrn, one of the oldest educators of Wisconsin and state superintendent from 1864 to 1868, died yesterday afternoon at his home here. The funeral will be held at 10:30 o'clock Thursday morning from the home. The Rev. E. G. Updike of the First Congregational church will conduct the services. The body will be taken to Racine for burial.

LONG DROUGHT IS GETTING SERIOUS

RAIN IS BADLY NEEDED IN SOUTHERN WISCONSIN.

Corn is Doing Fairly Well But Has Been Checked by the Dry Weather—Hay Crop Will be Light—Tobacco Replanting is Progressing Rapidly—Fruit is Good.

The following is the government weekly crop and climate bulletin for the week ending last night.

The average temperature for the week ranged from 70 degrees along the southern border of the state, to 54 degrees over the counties bordering on Lake Superior. In the southern portion of the state the temperature was about 8 degrees higher than that of last week, while in the northern portion there was little change. The nights are generally cool especially toward the end of the week, but no frost is reported.

The drought continues in the western and northern counties and is becoming serious in the central portion of the state. Rain is also badly needed in many localities in the southeastern counties. Copious rains occurred over the northeastern counties, the total for the week ranging from one to two inches. Liberal rains also occurred along the southwestern border, including Grant, Lafayette, Green, Iowa and portions of Dane and Sauk counties.

Early corn plantings have come up nicely and make good growth during the week, while the later plantings have been very slow in germinating, on account of the dry weather. In those sections where the drought is serious much replanting will be necessary. In some localities in the southwestern counties, where there has been sufficient moisture, corn is reported in excellent condition.

The dry weather during the week has caused winter wheat and rye to advance rapidly toward maturity. The straw is extremely short but the heads are generally reported of fair size and filling fairly well.

Oats and barley have made good progress where there has been sufficient moisture, but in the western and northwestern section have been seriously damaged by the drought.

Reports from nearly all portions of the state indicate that the hay crop will be very light and in some localities almost a total failure. Pastures are very short and badly in need of rain.

Tobacco replanting is progressing rapidly. The weather is too dry for a rapid growth, but the plants are generally in good condition.

The continued dry weather has been unfavorable for small fruits. Strawberries are reported small and drying up. Apples and plums give excellent promise.

Last fall I sprained my left hip while handling some heavy boxes. The doctor I called on said it was a slight strain and would soon be well, but it grew worse and the doctor then said I had rheumatism. It continued to grow worse and I could hardly get about to work. I went to a drug store and the druggist recommended me to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I tried it and one-half of a 4 cent bottle cured me entirely. I now recommend it to all my friends.—F. A. Babcock, Erie, Pa. It is for sale by Smith's Pharmacy, kodak agents, next to postoffice.

MITCHELL NOT A CANDIDATE

Says He Will Not Stand For Governor of Wisconsin.

Milwaukee, Wis., June 6.—John L. Mitchell, formerly United States senator, returned to this city yesterday from a trip to Europe. One of the first things he did was to formally announce that under no circumstances would he accept the democratic nomination for governor.

"I am not a candidate and would not consider a nomination. When I went abroad last fall I dropped my politics in the sea, and have not fished them up since. I shall return to Berlin in a few weeks, where I left my family. I shall attend to nothing but business while here."

In speaking of the presidential nomination he said: "Bryan is the strongest man the democrats can nominate. I do not say this as a 16 to 1 man, as I have always been a gold-standard man. Bryan may be wrong, possibly, but the people are dead sure of one thing, and that is that he is honest."

Great Picnic and Commencement Exercises Saturday—Whitehead and Harvey Will Speak.

GRADUATING CLASS

AT MYERS GRAND

AUDIENCE. PRESENT THAT FILLED THE THEATER.

Long Before the Hour of the First Number on the Program Every Seat Was Occupied—Program Was Most Interesting and Was Finished at 10:15 O'Clock.

Commencement exercises in honor of the 1900 graduating class of the Janesville High school took place at the Myers' Grand last evening. The exercises will be continued this evening and will conclude tomorrow evening. When the first number on the program was called last evening not a vacant seat was to be found in the spacious theatre. Many people who had neglected to arrive in time were obliged to remain standing during the entire evening. In green and white, the class colors, the opera house had been tastefully decorated. The pillars and railings as well as the boxes were draped. In the two colors suspended above the stage was the class motto: "We finish to begin" and "J. H. S. '00".

Supt. D. D. Mayne presided. A choir of 125 children from the graded schools formed the first number on the program when they rendered a double vocal selection: "Hail, thou Lovely Mouth of June," by Alfred Gaul, and "Now Good Evening Now Good Night."

Miss Mae Treat presided at the piano. Prof. Gaskins had entire charge of the choir and his perfect method of teaching was apparent.

Glen G. Snyder as president of the class gave the salutatory. Miss Edna Proctor was the next on the program and for her subject she discussed "What Becomes of Our Graduates." Joseph D. Hayes took for his thesis "The Chicago Sanitary and Ship Canal." The thesis was illustrated with lantern slides and proved most entertaining and instructive.

The Imperial quartet was next on the program and the several selections that they rendered met with high favor.

Mary E. Dolan next rendered in German a pathetic little love story entitled "Eine Deutsche Anekdoten."

Jabez Isaac took for his thesis "The Art of Book Binding."

"John Ruskin" was a well written oration delivered by Edward M. Hansen.

Anna M. Blank next gave an interesting thesis on the "Janesville Street Railway."

Anna S. Knights paid tribute to "America's Greatest Sculptor," Daniel C. French, and gave a word picture of the famous bas-relief "Death Staying the Hand of the Sculptor."

"The Witch Scene" from Macbeth was presented on the darkened stage by the following young ladies: Carrie M. McCartney, Florence, Isaac and Alice Youngclaus.

Lewis L. Rider and Roy D. Curler had the subject, "Optical Delusions."

Jeanette E. Sayre took for her subject "The Physician." What proved to be the event of the evening was the thesis on "Grecian Form and Movement," written and presented by Sarah H. Sutherland. A series of living pictures representing Greek groups made the thesis most interesting, colored lights being used. The young ladies who took part were trained by Mrs. J. B. Day, and to her good work due credit must be given.

Those who took part were Lillian S. Mount, Jessie D. Spellman, Catherine S. Fifield, Anna M. Collins, Nellie M. Cassidy, Mae M. Bunt, Margaret M. Baker, Hildegard E. Peterson and Gusie B. Granger.

Tonight the exercises will include, as one of the features, a three scene farce, written by Miss Amorette Whitton.

Said to Run Beggars' School.

New York, June 6.—William Smith, accused of providing crutches, cards and facial expressions for professional cripples and beggars, is in the clutches of the law. The police maintain that at the house where he lived, 120 Allen street, he conducted a college of mendicancy, where he made contracts with his most promising pupils. A lad named Lorenzo Bailey, 17 years old, who is now in prison, confessed in the Yorkville police court that he had been taught to pretend to be crippled and that William Smith was the teacher. The lad said: "He gave me a crutch and told me to go out and beg. He paid me 75 cents a day, and my daily receipts varied from $1.50 to $6 or $7. Of all over $4 I got a percentage."

Is Ousted from the Ministry.

Flora, Ind., June 6.—The Rev. J. C. Little, pastor of the Baptist church at Rossville, has been dismissed from the ministry by a trial board of thirty-five ministers. He was accused of unbecoming conduct. The Rev. T. M. Huckelberry of Logansport was moderator and the Rev. Ira Teford of Young America was clerk of the board. The trial was held in the church and was secret, though a large crowd had come to the village to witness the proceedings.

Slay Overseer and Escape.

Berlin, June 6.—At the Grandenz penitentiary four convicted murderers slew the penitentiary overseer, Faust, and then escaped. One of them donned the uniform of their victim, and, with the victim's sword in his hand, he conducted the others beyond the town limits, where they parted. Two have been caught, but the other two are still at large.

Such a pity that every body cannot enjoy the life-giving, health-protecting comfort of "Orangeine" which thousands are daily discovering.

Maryland Democrats.

Baltimore, Md., June 6.—The state democratic convention of Maryland elected as delegates at large Gov. John Walter Smith, State Treasurer Murray Van Diver, former Congressman Joshua W. Miles and Col. L. Victor Baughman. In the platform imperialism is condemned, a large standing army is deplored, and it is suggested that the democrats everywhere lay aside their differences on the currency question and "unite in an effort to stay the overwhelming progress of radical errors in regard to the nature of our government inaugurated by President McKinley and the republican party."

Mississippi Democrats.

Jackson, Miss., June 6.—The democratic convention, which met here to protest against the action of the state executive committee in ordering a plurality primary for the election of delegates to the national convention and electors, adopted resolutions condemning the state committee, the republican administration, trusts, imperialism and expansion and endorsed the Chicago platform and Bryan. The delegates-at-large selected were: Senator Money, Senator-elect McLaurin, Governor Longino and H. H. Henry.

Lives May Be Lost in Flames.

Quebec, Que., June 6.—The lumber plant at Ste. Etienne du Saguenay, belonging to Prince Bros. & Co. of Quebec, was destroyed by fire. The loss will reach $400,000. Forty families were made homeless, and it is believed several persons perished in the flames. The telegraph office and other buildings were destroyed. The fire is supposed to have been started by colonists.

Says Strikes Are Lawful.

New York, June 6.—"Our law recognizes the right of men and women to work or not to work, as the interests or fancy incline them, and if any number of employees determine to strike there is nothing unlawful in their doing so. If by combination they can obtain shorter hours or higher wages, they may do so." Justice James Fitzgerald of the Supreme court handed down the above opinion Tuesday.

WINE OF CARDUI

A LITTLE DOES MUCH.

Boons, Iowa, Dec. 14.

No tongue can tell what I have endured in the past ten years with my monthly sickness. While suffering untold agony, a friend called and recommended Wine of Cardui. I sent for a bottle, and Oh! what relief. After the first dose I began to feel better and have had no pain since.

MRS. GRACE LAMPHERE.

Wine of Cardui

Wine of Cardui not only cures but it acts AT ONCE. Here is a case of ten years' standing, and yet one single dose made the sufferer feel better, and stopped the pain. The Wine goes straight to the seat of the trouble. It acts directly upon the menstrual and genital organs. Its action is not violent, and it does not force a result. It simply gives Nature that little assistance that the sufferer's system lacks. A single disorder in the feminine organs spreads many disorders all over the body, and when the Wine cures the source, all the other ills vanish as a matter of course. A woman can be her own physician and cure herself at home. Local examinations are largely things of the past—the obnoxious custom is no longer necessary. Wine of Cardui is the only perfectly safe and sure vegetable Wine made to-day for the cure of "female troubles."

THIS DAY IN HISTORY.

1538—Ludovico Giovanni Ariosto, Italian poet, died in Ferrara; born 1474.
1765—Nathan Hale, martyr of liberty, born in Coventry, Conn.; executed in New York city Sept. 22, 1776.
1790—Patrick Henry died; born 1736.
1813—James Lawrence, naval officer, died on the Chesapeake; his last words, "Don't give up the ship."
1844—The Young Men's Christian association for young men have existed in all Protestant countries for 200 years. The modern English speaking associations began by a meeting of clerks in a London mercantile house in 1844, organized by George Williams, a clerk. The movement started by Williams developed into the permanent associations. It was soon imitated in the great cities of the kingdom. Montreal formed one after the London model in 1851, and Boston soon followed. The civil war retarded the growth of branches in the United States, but at its close, or in 1850, a new impetus was given to the movement, and in ten years there were 700 associations, with a membership of 100,000. The associations in the United States and Canada are affiliated in an international convention, organized in 1854.
1861—Count Camillo Cavour, statesman, died in Turin; born there 1810.
1868—Thomas N. Rucker, a veteran journalist of The Tribune staff, died in New York city; born 1813.
1890—Gomez issued a farewell manifesto to the Cuban people.

PROTECTION NOT DOOMED.

An editorial in "Gunton's Magazine" is entitled "Expansion the Doom of Protection." Briefly stated the argument is as follows: Heretofore Americans, having foreign possessions or alliances, have concentrated political study and effort on their internal affairs. The policy of protection has been adhered to because it provided revenue for the government in the least annoying way, and fostered domestic industry. Free trade, though supported by many educational institutions and men of culture, could not convince the people against the evidence furnished by experience that prosperity accompanies the protective policy and every departure from that policy resulted in or was followed by industrial disturbance, frequently by disastrous depressions accompanied by financial panics. But the acquisition of insular dependencies is turning public thought into new channels. We must provide for these new wards of the nation and there is a strong drift even among protectionists, to open the gates of the custom house to them. This tendency is regarded as an entering wedge. Co-existent with it is our greatly expanding export trade, which we shall be plausibly told is the true aim of commercial endeavor, and that it can be greatly accelerated by free entry to our ports, as also that a tariff is no longer needed to enable us to compete with foreign production.

That there is something in all this is freely avowed. A good many people have apparently been carried off their feet, temporarily at least, by the sentiment of friendliness for one or another of the islands. More study of the facts and a proper severance of them from political bias will enable us to arrive at judicious conclusions as to what should be the settled policy of the nation. Absorbing us may be the public interest in our new possessions, we hardly think our people will forget the imperative conditions of home prosperity. With the subsidence of warlike conditions in the Philippines and the gradual progress of all the islands in the school of modern civil government the novelty of our new relationships will wear off. With a fair degree of success attending our efforts in that direction we shall cease to worry over our new responsibilities. Neither do we think that the rapid growth of our export trade portends disaster to the protective policy. Had this growth accrued under a Free-Trade regime the case would be different, but the Gunton article aptly states the historical relation between protection and foreign trade. It says:

It has been constantly urged that with protection we could have no foreign trade. Experience has destroyed the validity of that theory by showing that our foreign trade grew as our domestic industry developed. The greater our home productions the greater is our consumption of foreign goods. Not that we consume foreign goods instead of our own, but in addition to our own by way of variety. The more the people make and use, the more they are likely to buy from others. Those who make little produce little, never buy much; they are small consumers. Contrary to all the anti-protection reasoning, with the development of our domestic industries we have increased our exports to foreign countries. This means that we have gradually come to produce certain commodities cheaper than they can be produced in other countries, notwithstanding our tariff duties, which the foreigners complained were added to the price and handicapped American producers. During this time, with the diversification of industries, development of resources, cheapening of products, creation of cities, popular education and daily earning opportunities for the masses, we worked along at a rate witnessed nowhere else in the world. Neither plausible theories of protection nor imaginary pictures of the honor, glory and gain of capturing foreign markets, availed so long as the economic and political interests of the American people were centered on developing the economic resources, adjusting the social conditions and solving the political problems of the United States.

Exactly, and the energies of our people will long continue to be centered on these internal affairs. Our natural resources still afford boundless fields for effort. The American market is the greatest and most profitable market in the world, and our social and political problems are not at all disposed of yet. The value of protection to the welfare of the country is better understood today than ever before, and so long as our people retain the clear common sense with which they are generally credited they will continue to adhere to the policy of home enrichment by home production.

Wheat was strong all day, with no rain reported in the northwest and a good many unfavorable reports came from that section. Ohio state report made condition 29. The Trade Bulletin reduced its estimate of the winter wheat crop from 874,000,000 to 340,000,000 bushels. Primary receipts and clearances were moderate; cash demand was better, and fair sales were reported. Liverpool was 1/2d. lower and Paris 20 C. I. higher. The volume of trade was much larger, a good share of the buying coming from commission houses. Indications were for continued dry weather in the northwest.

Corn was strong, at one time but later sagged off and closed about unchanged. Cash sales were liberal. All out 400,000 and primary receipts and clearances were fair. Liverpool was 1 1/2 d. higher. On strong spots a good deal of corn was for sale.

Oats were a little firmer and closed steady. There was a good shipping demand and at sea-board exports at 15c. 000 bushels, receipts were rather light.

Provisions: There was an active trade in provisions and prices were higher all around. Shorts bought pork and packers were buyers of lard and ribs.

Bible Translated Into Scotch

For the benefit of that portion of the Scotch peasantry to whom ordinary English is hard to read, the bible has just been translated into the Scotch dialect. It is about to be published by Mr. Gardner of Paisley. Following is a specimen passage as it appears in the Scotch dialect; the matter being a portion of the fifth chapter of St. Matthew: And, seein' the thrang o' folk, he gaed up intil a mountain; and when he was sitten down his disciples gather'd about.
2. And he open'd his mouth, and instructit them; and quoe he:

4. "Happy they that are makin' their muen; for they sal fin' comfort and peace!"
5. "Happy the lowly and meek o' the yirth; for the yirth sal be their ain hadden!"
6. "Happy they whose hunger and drouth are a for holiness, for they sal be stegh'd!"
7. "Happy the pitifu' for they sal win pitie theirsels!"
8. Happy the pure heartit; for their een sal dwell upon God!
9. "Happy the mairkers-up o' strife; for they sal be countit for bairns o' God!"
10. "Happy the ill-treit ones for the sake o' guide, for they shae the kingdom o' God!"
11. "Happy sal ye be when folk shall mica' ye, and ill-treat ye, and say a' things again ye wrangousie for my sake!"
12. "Joy ye, and be blythel! for ye meed is great in heaven! for e'en sae did they till the prophets afore ye!"

AWFUL TORTURE OF A NEGRO.
Mob Tries Unsuccessfully to Make Him Confess a Crime.

Mississippi City, Miss., June 6.—A mob of thirty men from Handsboro, Miss., came to Mississippi City and took from the jail the negro Askev, who was under arrest suspected of the murder of Christine Winterstein near Biloxi Saturday afternoon. He was admonished to tell the truth under the direst threats, but said he was not guilty. He was then tied and slashed with a whip laid on as hard as strong men could wield it. A rope was put around his neck and he was hoisted into the air over and over again, being taken down just before he lost consciousness each time. A hot blaze of brushwood was made and the negro was stripped of his clothing and exposed to its heat. His yelling could be heard for a mile through the woods, and he was very severely blistered, but held to his innocence. About this time one of the mob lost heart in the proceedings and interfered. Pistols were drawn and trouble would have occurred between the men had the father of the murdered child not spoken up, saying that the mother of the child ought to be permitted to see the man who had done her so great a wrong. The negro was hurried back to the jail, where medical attention was given him. Two other men who were in the vicinity, one a white man, both being woodchoppers, have been taken into custody.

ANTI-DYNASTIC MOVEMENT

Has Caused Unexampled Alarm to the Sultan.

Moscow, June 6.—Recent developments in Constantinople have revealed the fact that the antidynastic movement is gaining headway and has already reached proportions that are a source of unexampled alarm to the sultan. The Yildiz Kiosk is in a state of panic. Numerous officials and other prominent Turks have been arrested, fifteen have been exiled to Yemen, Arabia and every courtier and functionary is expecting that his turn may come next.

It is declared in dispatches received here from Constantinople by way of the frontier towns that Abdul Hamid, having been living since 1897 in dread of a crisis that would result in his dethronement, has deposited in the last ten years 800,000 francs ($150,000) in various European banks.

Antidynastic intrigues are worrying Prince Nicolas of Montenegro also, according to dispatches from Cetinje. M. Drakovich, chief of police; M. Podgaritz, president of the high court; Cols. Boyovitch and Karatich and other officials have been arrested on the charge of plotting against the ruling prince. Some of the men taken made ineffectual attempts to escape into Servia.

FRIEND ARRESTED HERE THIS MORNING

CHIEF HOGAN UNEARTHED
MANY STOLEN ARTICLES.

Local Well Known Character Now Behind Jail Bars—Search of His Home on Jefferson Avenue Brings to Light Many Stolen Articles—Arrest is Most Important.

Jacob Friend, ex-janitor of the Y. M. C. A., a member of the Congregational church and a prominent worker in the Francis Murphy Temperance League, was placed under arrest this morning by Chief of Police Hogan on the charge of larceny.

The sudden disappearance of a carpet from the home of George Devins on Linn street led to the discovery of what appears to be the most cunning and extensive petty robber taken in hand by the Janesville police in some years.

When Chief Hogan was first notified of the taking of the carpet from the Devins home he suspected that Friend knew something about the robbery from the fact that the neighbors saw him prowling about the Devins home at the time the carpet was taken. Yesterday Chief Hogan drove to the home of Friend which is located at 7, Jefferson street opposite the Northwestern round house. Friend was not at home being in Madison attending the Woodman picnic.

Friend Looked Surprised
Early this morning Chief Hogan made another trip to Friend's home. Friend came to the door and when accused of taking the carpet he looked surprised and at once entered a strong protest. After being questioned he finally admitted having the carpet, but said that he found it in the yard.

When Friend and the officer started for a rear room to secure the carpet it was then for the first time that Chief Hogan realized that he was beneath a roof that sheltered alleged stolen goods of nearly every description.

Friend resides in the house alone. The dwelling is a poorly furnished frame structure two stories high. No carpets were on the floor and the house presented a poverty stricken appearance.

After Friend had been taken to a cell in the city lock up, Chief Hogan returned to the prisoner's home accompanied by a Gazette representative. The entire house was then searched. The parlor of the humble home had been turned into a junk repair shop.

In this room in one corner was discovered the tires, handle bar and saddle that had been stolen Saturday evening from H. Ross King's bicycle which it is alleged was taken from the back in the rear of the Thomas King residence on Locust street.

Three or Four Bicycles
In the center of the room were three men's bicycles. No numbers could be found on any of these wheels. One was an Andrae make. Whether or not these wheels were stolen remains to be seen. Friend denies having stolen them and says he purchased them.

In another part of the same room was found stored away several carpenter tools that bore the stamp of J. T. Wilcox. These tools were stolen some time ago from the barn of the Wilcox residence on Locust street and were identified this morning by Mrs. Wilcox.

In the rear of this room was a poorly furnished bed room that is not even deserving the name. This room was a mass of filth. No alleged stolen property was found here. From off the front room was the sitting room and kitchen. In neither of these rooms was suspected stolen property found.

On the second floor numerous articles alleged to have been stolen were found. In the front room were no less than a dozen different pieces of carpet. These pieces were all freely sprinkled with leaf tobacco to keep out moths.

Two Dozen Women's Dresses
In an adjoining room was a trunk alleged to have been taken from the Adam Wilson home on Academy street. In a box in one corner of this room were found four bicycle lamps. Adjoining this room was a dark garret. In this low room were hanging no less than two dozen women's dresses and other women's wearing apparel.

The cellar also contained many objects of interest. A box filled with railroad coal occupied the center of the room. On a shelf were several glass jars of preserves. Vegetables, that the neighbors allege were taken from their gardens, were found in the cellar. Friend resided alone, paying five dollars a month rent. His only living companion was a cat.

Chief Hogan says that before the present difficulty is cleared the fact will be known that Friend has been carrying on petty larceny for some time. In private families the prisoner has secured work doing odd jobs about their yards and homes. It was then that he had the opportunity to get in his work.

Friend has resided in Janesville for the past four years. He has been a queer character and has made a living by doing odd jobs. He says that he was born in Switzerland fifty-six years ago and has been a resident of this country for the past twenty years. For a time he was employed as janitor of the local Y. M. C. A. building.

He recently joined the Congregational church and for some time has taken a deep interest in the work of the Francis Murphy Temperance League. He claims to have no relatives in this country.

When seen in his cell this morning Mr. Friend admitted that he took the bicycle from the King house, but says he took it from the yard in the day time and not at night. He does not admit stealing the numerous other articles found in his home. Friend said:

"I could not secure work in this town."

Thicken the gravy with flour moistened in a little cold water, and a little lemon juice of tomato catchup and pour over the collins.

I asked certain members of the Francis Murphy League to get me work but they never did. No one helped me in the church. If I get out of Janesville this time I would not come back for fifty dollars a week. I have resided here four years.

Several Jefferson street families notified the police this morning that of late Friend sold them pieces of carpet at small prices.

This afternoon at 3:30 o'clock Friend appeared before Judge Fifield on the charge of having stolen a bicycle on June 2, the property of H. Ross King of this city. The plaintiff waived examination and was held for trial at 10 o'clock in the morning of June 12. In default of $300 bail he was committed to jail.

REV. KEMPTON CASE HAS BEEN DROPPED

The Defendant Failed to Produce the Cash—Case On This Account Goes By Default.

Indications are that the case of Margaret Holloran vs. Rev. Arthur C. Kempton, has been dropped. Several weeks ago the defendant's attorneys, Fethers, Jeffris and Mount, secured an order from the Rock county circuit court requiring the plaintiff's attorneys, Mahoney and Ryan to deposit the sum of $250 as security for costs in the action.

According to the statutes this money should be deposited before the expiration of twenty days from the time papers are served. The twenty days have passed and no money has made its appearance.

This means that the case has gone by default, and will never be brought to trial. The plaintiff, who is now a resident of Chicago, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Holloran of this city. She brought suit in the sum of several thousand dollars for alleged slander. She claimed through her attorneys that her reputation was injured by the Rev. Kempton, who informed one of the members of his church that she had not better keep company with Miss Holloran. The defendant is the present divine of the Baptist church in this city.

BAD PASSENGER CAUSED TROUBLE

Lively Scene on the Woodmen Special On Its Way to Janesville Last Evening.

Coming home on the special from Madison last evening an unruly passenger on the Woodmen special went wrong from the effects of too much booze. This man resides in Janesville. When the train left Edgerton the booze commenced to get in its work and then all of a sudden the afflicted man imagined that some one insulted him by shutting the car door in his face. To play even the intoxicated man knocked his fist through the window. His hand was badly cut. To add to the melee the brakeman took a hand in the game by slugging the bad boy from the Bowler City. Several of the young man's friends then put in an appearance and said that all they wanted was fair play. The interference of the railroad officials put a stop to what at one time looked like a bad mess. No arrests were made on the arrival of the train in this city.

The special arrived in Janesville about nine o'clock. The Milwaukee road officials could not have done more for the comfort of their guests. Schedule time was made just as promised.

BRITISH IN BOER CAPITAL.

Lord Roberts Seizes Pretoria, and Troops Enter.

BATTLE AT SIX MILE SPRUIT.

Burgers Make a Desperate Fight During Advance of Imperial Troops—President Kruger at Lorenzo Marques—Latest News from the Front.

London, June 6.—It is officially announced that the British have occupied Pretoria. The war office has issued the following dispatch from Lord Roberts: "Pretoria, June 5 (11:40 a. m.).—We are now in possession of Pretoria. The official entry will be made this afternoon at 2 o'clock."

Lord Roberts entered Pretoria at 2 o'clock, South African time.

The war office this morning issues the following dispatch received from Lord Roberts: "Six Miles' Spruit, 8:30 p. m., June 4.—We started this morning at daybreak and marched about ten miles to Six Miles' Spruit, both banks of which were occupied by the enemy. Henry's and Ross' mounted infantry, with the West Somerset, Dorset, Bedford and Sussex, companies of yeomanry, quickly dislodged them from the south bank and pursued them nearly a mile, when they found themselves under a heavy fire from guns which the Boers had placed in a well concealed commanding position."

"Our heavy guns of the navy and royal artillery, which had purposely been placed in the front part of the column, were hurried to the assistance of the mounted infantry as fast as oxen and mules could travel over the great, rolling hills surrounding Pretoria. The guns were supported by Stevenson's brigade of Pole-Carew's, and after a few rounds, drove the enemy from their positions."

"The Boers then attempted to turn our left flank, in which they were again foiled by the mounted infantry and yeomanry, supported by Maxwell's brigade of Tucker's division. As, however, they still kept pressing our left rear, I sent word to Ian Hamilton, who was advancing three miles to our left, to incline towards us and fill up the gap between the two columns. This finally checked the enemy, who were driven back toward Pretoria."

"I hoped we would have been able to follow them up, but the days now are very short; and, after nearly two hours' marching and fighting, we had to bivouac on the ground gained during the day."

"The guards brigade is quite near the southernmost fort by which Pretoria is defended and less than four miles from the town."

"French, with the Third and Fourth cavalry brigades, and Hutton's new South Wales mounted rifles, north of Pretoria."

"Broadwood's brigade is between French's and Hamilton's columns; and Gordon is watching the right flank of the main force, not far from the railway bridge at Irene station, which was destroyed by the enemy."

"Our casualties, I hope, are very few."

Entry Into Johannesburg.

Johannesburg, June 6.—The entry of an armed force into this large, modern, populous town afforded such a strange contrast to the previous incidents of the war as to make the occasion peculiarly memorable. Soon after 10 o'clock Lord Roberts and his staff left the camp, followed by the guards and Stevenson's brigade and a few newspaper correspondents. Preparations had been made on a large scale to welcome the field marshal. The space around the courthouse was thronged and the balconies were filled with women in front of the courthouse, the "vierkluer." Free State flag, still flew.

Sells a Gray Squirrel Hunt.

Denver, Colo., June 6.—Thirty thousand gray squirrels will soon be homeless as a result of the action of the state land board. In a thickly timbered tract near Devil's Head mountain, in Douglas county, these little animals have multiplied for years, protected by public sentiment. Within the confines of the squirrel wood the crack of a rifle or the sound of an axe is never heard. At least 30,000 squirrels, it is estimated, inhabit a tract sixty acres in extent. Within a few months, however, the forest and the squirrels will have disappeared, as the timber has been sold by the state for $250.

Kill Sheep Despite Bounty.

Minneapolis, Minn., June 6.—Lyon county, Minnesota, is almost confronted with the dilemma whether to permit its treasury to become bankrupt or to permit the wolves to abolish stock-raising. During the months of March, April and May the county paid for the killing of eighty-five full-grown wolves and 779 whelps no less than $2,953. And there is no evidence that the wolves are appreciably reduced in numbers. Lyon county is comparatively thickly settled and lies about 130 miles west of Minneapolis. Many sheep are raised there and the wolves prey upon the flocks.

Barr Men Using Tobacco.

Cedarville, Ohio, June 6.—At the session of the Reformed Presbyterian synod the tobacco question again came up for discussion, and a resolution was passed that the churches be prohibited from ordaining elders and presbyters from licensing and ordaining young men to the ministry who use tobacco in any form. The remainder of the morning session was taken up in routine business and the disposing of unfinished business.

PLEAD BOERS' CAUSE.

Envoys Welcome Extended by 4,000 People.

Chicago, June 6.—Chicago voiced its welcome to the envoys from the South African republics by filling the Auditorium with shouting and cheering enthusiasts for the struggling burghers. The men on a mission of peace were made to understand that the sympathy of the thousands before them was unequivocally on the side of the sturdy farmers battling on the mountains and on the veldt for their liberty. The envoys themselves were heartily greeted when presented to the assemblage, but it was the stories of the courage and valor of their countrymen against an overwhelming foe which aroused the interest and admiration of the audience. Four thousand people assembled in the big hall to lend by their voice and presence such encouragement and hope as was needed to cheer the representatives of the young republics. These people listened to protests against the annihilation of the two South African states, and insisted that an unholy war was being waged because of the lust for gold. They heard the story of the death struggle for liberty, and cried out with fervor when Abraham Fischer, chairman of the delegation and high in the councils of the Orange Free State, raised his hand and said: "Our cause is a holy one. We give to America the message that we love our freedom not less than she does hers. And so long as there is an Afrikaner left—so long as there is a boy to grow up on the plains—Great Britain shall not stamp out our liberty."

New York Democratic Convention.

New York, June 6.—William Jennings Bryan was the only name for president before the New York state democratic convention, held at the Academy of Music today. Delegates were instructed to vote as a unit for him at Kansas City. The platform declares for: No war taxes in time of peace; both gold and silver as the standard money of the country; no imperialism, which contemplates schemes of conquest and the establishment of colonial government in accordance with British theories; abolishment of all customs tariffs between the United States and Porto Rico; opposition to trusts, the direct outgrowth of the republican party; election of senators by the people.

The following were nominated: Delegates-at-Large—David B. Hill, Richard Croker, Edward Murphy and Augustus Van Wyck.

Alternates—Frank Campbell, Jacob Ruppert, Jr.; C. Morgan Sanford and James Shevlin.

Elected-at-Large—Frederick Cook of Rochester, Robert C. Titus of Buffalo.

Alaska Sends Delegations.

Seattle, Wash., June 6.—Col. R. D. Cutler, Wrangel; Robert Jennings, Skagway; E. O. Silvester, Skagway; L. L. Williams, Juneau; C. D. Rogers, Juneau; W. M. Hale, Douglas City, were elected delegates to the national democratic convention in Kansas City by the Democratic territorial convention held in Juneau, May 28. By a unanimous vote the delegates were instructed to work and vote for William Jennings Bryan for the Democratic nomination for president. Two delegates, John G. Heid, and W. D. Harper, to the national republican convention, arrived on the Cottage City on their way to Philadelphia.

Coal Dealers' Club Illegal.

Kansas City, Kan., June 6.—A jury in the United States Circuit court brought in a verdict of guilty against the Kansas City Coal Dealers' club and allowed the plaintiff, Samuel Hartman, $390 damages, besides $500 for attorney's fees. By its verdict the jury declared its belief that the Coal club is really a "coal combine," and that the coal combine damaged Mr. Hartman as a coal dealer. The case will be appealed to the United States Circuit Court of Appeals.

LIVELY DAY IN THE SENATE.

Tornado of Debate by Senator Hanna and Others.

DEPOSITS OF PUBLIC MONEY

To Be Better Protected in the Philippines, Cuba and Porto Rico—Both Miles and Corbin Win—Shipbuilder Crump May Talk Later.

Washington, June 6.—A tornado of debate swept over the senate, with Senators Hanna of Ohio, Pettigrew of South Dakota and Carter of Montana the chief figures.

The conference report on the Alaskan code bill was adopted. The bill now goes to the president. Mr. Aldrich presented a conference report on the bill to provide better facilities for the deposit of public money in the Philippines, Cuba and Porto Rico, and it was agreed to.

Mr. Butler asked unanimous consent that a vote be taken at once upon the pending motion to refer the anti-trust measure to the judiciary committee. It was agreed to take a vote on the motion to refer, and it was carried, 43 to 22.

The conference report on the emergency river and harbor bill was presented and discussed at length. It contained a provision for the termination of the contract with James B. Eads and to pay $200,000 to the Eads heirs for all real estate and appliances at South Pass in the Mississippi river, and also for a survey of the Ohio river, which was vigorously opposed. The report was rejected, 10 to 45.

The senate in executive session confirmed all the nominations sent in except that of J. S. Black, to be postmaster at Butler, Pa. The nominations of Gen. Wheeler to be brigadier-general and John R. Hazel to be United States district judge for the western district of New York were affirmed.

Washington, June 6.—The house on assembling adopted the conference report on the Alaskan code bill. The report showed a complete agreement. A conference was ordered on the Neely extradition bill and then the differences between the two houses on the military academy appropriation bill were considered, an hour being given each side for debate. The conference on the military academy bill at a late hour reached a complete agreement, accepting the senate amendment making Gen. Miles a lieutenant-general and Gen. Corbin a major-general, a provision being inserted in the lieutenant-general amendment that it shall apply only to officers of the line. The number of cadets at large was increased to 100, thirty to be named direct by the president and the others apportioned to the states.

Washington, June 6.—The senate rejected the nomination of W. D. Byrum as general appraiser at the port of New York by a tie vote. There was only brief discussion of the nomination of Mr. Byrum in the executive session. Mr. Byrum's name stood at the head of the list of nominations, and Mr. Fairbanks said that rather than cause other nominations to be unacted upon before final adjournment he would consent to a ballot being taken. The vote was 33 to 33.

Philadelphia, Pa., June 6.—When Charles H. Crump was seen at the shipyard and asked if Senator Pettigrew's statement that he had contributed $400,000 to the republican campaign fund of 1892 was accurate, he was diplomatically reticent. He refused to deny or confirm the amounts named by Mr. Pettigrew, but admitted a contribution to Chairman Carter. In a day or two Mr. Crump said he might be in a position to make a statement on the matter.

Washington, June 6.—The president sent the following nomination, among others, to the senate: Brig.-Gen. Joseph Wheeler, U. S. V., to be a brigadier-general of the United States army.

Gen. Miles Chosen President. Columbus, Ohio, June 6.—The Society of the Porto Rican Expedition was organized here. Maj.-Gen. Nelson A. Miles, commanding the army, was elected national president, and Col. F. Michler, his chief of staff, was elected secretary. Telegrams asking their immediate acceptance were dispatched. Other national officers selected by the nominating committee, but not yet acted upon, were: First vice-president, Maj.-Gen. John R. Brooke; second vice-president, Admiral Winfield S. Schley; treasurer, Major James Johnson, Bradford, Pa.; historian, Gen. G. A. Garrettsen, Cleveland, Ohio; judge-advocate, Col. Fred Bennett, Peoria, Ill.

FESTIVITIES IN ZAMBOANGA.

Sambling and Drinking at the Datto's Great Ball—A Pageant of Moro Bonts—How a Female Prisoner in Jolo Was Decapitated by an Angry Official.

Captain J. V. Philip of the Thirty-first infantry in the Philippines has written an interesting letter to relatives in Washington. At the time of writing the captain and his command were stationed at Zamboanga, island of Mindanao, says the St. Louis Republic. He describes a grand ball given in honor of the datto of that place.

"At the table," says he, "the datto first placed all the women who had lost men of their families in the late war, the one that took place here just before we landed. The datto and his men killed most of them, and now he is making amends to the widows and mothers. The dance lasted until 6 a. m. The company was a little 'mixed,' Christian and Mohammedan. In the last set of the square dance all the officers of the army and navy on duty here wore the turbans and sashes of the Moros. They were delighted and said we were indeed friends now. The rich silk turban and waist sash on our white uniforms, with the gold and white shoulder straps, made a very pretty effect.

"The color of the people assembled ran the scale of the rainbow. Back of the dancing room were some rooms, curtained off, where the datto's wives and daughters looked on. A drinking room was provided where beer, vino tinto, whisky, brandy and champagne were served. In a dark anteroom a gambling game was in progress. The only light was on the green covered table. Weird faces, those of Moros, Filipinos, Chinese, Malays and Christians, made a fantastic frame to the 'layout.' The bank was broken once by four Mexican gamblers, who played and danced alternately.

"The other day we were attracted to the water's edge by the sound of guns and drums of the tomtom sort and beheld a magic fleet of small sailboats, about 60 in all. It was the sultan of Mindanao, his retinue and armor bearers come to pay their respects. The wildest freak of imagination could not be a circumstance to what this pageant was. Flags, spears, shields, double handled swords, brass cannon, war drums and banners of all descriptions were there in greatest abundance. The sultan and each datto had his own boat pulled by from 12 to 16 men when the sails were not set. Under large umbrellas of red and yellow silk embroidered with their crests reclined the sultan and dattos on piles of cushions. They first fired a salute, and then their drums made a terrible din. We took them ashore and marched them through a double line of troops with our band furnishing the music.

"At the office of the adjutant general we gave them cigars. You may imagine a white elephant was not a circumstance to this crew. We showed them parade and target practice, and they were very much impressed, especially so with a small Mauser gun I have which fires ten shots automatically with one pull of the trigger. Our visitors' costumes were gorgeous. The sultan's cuffs were of gold, and in his feet were several silver cocks' feathers. He wore some barbarous looking rings and other jewelry."

Information just received at Washington from Jolo, in the Philippine archipelago, indicates that the sultan as well as the sultana is interested in Americans and purposes to protect them from harm. A letter from an officer on duty at Maibun gives an account of the solicitude felt for himself and his men by the occupants of the Jolo throne. It was reported that a band of 40 Juramentados proposed to visit Maibun, the sultan's capital, and avenge the death of one of their number.

"I am laying off today," the officer says, "by desire of the sultana, who is worried for fear we will get hurt. It is very kind of her, but I don't think it necessary. Talk about the savage Moro! He has more courtesy than lots of white people. The sultan told me if I wanted any eggs or chickens, etc., he would buy them for me. He has treated me splendidly." The first letter, which is dated March 8, says that 40 Juramentados were scheduled to arrive at Maibun that evening.

"There has been much fighting here lately," the letter adds. "We came over here on Friday. On Saturday there was a row of some kind on the island of Pata, about 15 miles down the coast. There was a fight with thieves on Sunday at Licos, about ten miles in the country. Two were killed, Tuesday, for some reason, was quiet. Wednesday two men and three women from Pata were taken up before the sultan to be fined in connection with Saturday's row.

"They did not have the necessary amount to pay the fine, and one man got mad, grasped a barong in one hand and sailed in. He got two women and one man before they could escape and decapitated one of the women with one stroke. Then he ran, and they after him. He got 200 or 300 feet before a bullet stopped him. Then spears and knives finished him. Word came yesterday that 40 Juramentados were coming to avenge the man's death. I am going to have my men sleep at my brother's as a precaution, a tent being poor protection."

Under date of March 9 the officer writes: "Our friends failed to show up last night. I took all of the men over to my brother's to sleep. Seven of us slept on a platform about ten feet square. He offered the use of another platform, but we were all right."

The Juramentados mentioned by the officer are the most savage tribesmen of the island of Jolo. Their favorite weapon is a crude native sword which resembles a boomerang and is called a "barong." In hand to hand fighting this weapon is capable of doing much damage, but the sultan by using modern arms has partially subdued the Juramentados.

GERONIMO AT POKER.

Apache War Chief Will Use His Warnings to Educate Indian Children.

Geronimo, the famous Apache war chief, recently deposited in the bank at Chien-sha $1,425, the result of his winnings at poker, says a Wichita (Kan.) dispatch to the St. Louis Republic. An army officer said the old Indian means to give it to the Indian children for the purpose of educating them. Geronimo believes it is necessary for the young Indians to become educated in the white man's way now. Geronimo has been a prisoner of war 20 years, and during that time he has made numerous attempts to escape.

In the last five years he has quieted down altogether. Recently he became a great poker player. He shuffles the cards cautiously, never cheats and expects his opponents to play fair. He is a great bluffer and is not afraid to call a bluff. The soldiers like to play poker with Geronimo, and he keeps them "broke" nearly all the time. The other Sunday he won nearly $400 and upon the advice of his friends made a bank deposit.

FILIPINO BARBARITIES.

Letter From a Kansas Boy Who Is Serving in Mindanao.

Mrs. G. M. Taylor of Newton, Ill., has received a letter from her son Clarence, who was wounded in the Philippines, but has since returned to the ranks. It tells of some blood curdling deeds perpetrated by the Filipinos, says the St. Louis Globe-Democrat. The letter is dated Cagayan, Mindanao, April 12, and is in part as follows:

"When my regiment left for Mindanao, I was left in Manila with a slight attack of malaria fever. I rejoined it two weeks ago at this town, where there are 350 of the regiment now. Nothing of importance happened until the night of April 6, when all the natives began leaving town. We thought something would happen, but did not think the natives had nerve enough to come into the town and attack us. But in this we were mistaken.

"About 5 o'clock on the morning of April 7 the bell in the cathedral church began ringing ominously. It was the signal for an attack. A minute later it stopped I heard the worst yelling I ever heard in my life, and the shooting commenced. We had to face about 1,200 Filipinos, who looked like Indians, and we did not at once fire on them, as we ought to have done. As they drew nearer we found they had on women's dresses and cried 'Amigo,' deceiving us into thinking they were women fleeing to us for protection. We saw through their ruse at once, however, and knew we were in for a fight.

"Our boys began to pour hot shot into them, and they began to fall like Kansas jack rabbits. One of them pinned one of our soldiers to the ground with a spear after his leg was broken by a Mauser. The natives danced around and tried to bolo the stricken soldier, calling all the time on 'God to help him.'

"Our loss was three killed and ten wounded, while the enemy lost 64 killed. Their wounded is unknown. The Filipino commander says he will have the head of every American in town. I wish you could have seen the way they butchered two of our three men killed. They cut one body into strips and then cut the heart out.

"Two soldiers were killed on outpost duty before they could get back to us. It has since been learned from two others that escaped that the natives surprised them in a cunning way. They came up at early dawn, stooped over, carried their shields in front and swayed from side to side, in imitation of a herd of cattle, which indeed the boys thought they were. The two men killed were boloed to pieces."

SORES and Ulcers

DRAIN THE SYSTEM, ENDANGER LIFE.

That old sore or ulcer, which has been a source of pain, worry and anxiety to you for five or ten years—maybe longer—doesn't heal because you are not using the proper treatment, but are trying to cure it with salves and washes. While these are soothing and relieve pain to some extent, no real, permanent good can come from their use, because the disease is in the blood and far beyond the reach of external applications.

A sore heals promptly when the blood is in good condition, but never if it is diseased. The tendency of these old sores and ulcers is to grow worse, spreading and eating deeper into the flesh. They are a constant drain upon the system, gradually but surely ruin the health and sap the very life. A person's capacity for work or pleasure is soon lost in the great desire and search for something to cure.

S. S. S. makes a rapid and permanent cure of old sores and ulcers, and is the only medicine that does, because no other can reach deep-seated blood troubles. Ordinary Sarsaparilla and potash mixtures are too weak and watery to overcome a deadly poison that has taken possession of the blood. Do not waste valuable time experimenting with them.

"Some years ago I was shot in the left leg, receiving what I considered only a slight wound. It developed into a running sore and gave me a great deal of pain. I was treated by many doctors, and took a number of blood remedies, but none did me any good. I had heard S. S. S. highly recommended and concluded to give it a trial. The result was truly gratifying. S. S. S. seemed to get right at the trouble, and forced the poison out of my blood; soon afterwards the sore healed up and was cured sound and well. I now have perfect use of the leg, which was swollen and very stiff for a long time." J. H. McBRAYER, Lawrenceburg, Ky.

S. S. S. is the only purely vegetable blood purifier known; is made of roots and herbs of wonderful purifying properties, which no poison can resist. S. S. S. quickly and effectually clears the blood of all morbid, unhealthy humors, and the old, troublesome sore heals. At the same time the general health is invigorated and built up. When a little scratch or hurt fails to heal readily, you may be sure your blood is bad. S. S. S. will soon put it in order and keep it so.

Our Medical Department is in charge of experienced physicians, who have made blood diseases a life study. If you will write them about your case, they will gladly furnish all information or advice wanted, without any charge whatever.

Ziegler's Suits Made Right--

DON'T WRINKLE. Seams put together properly. DON'T PULL. Edges stayed. WON'T CRINKLE. Have the appearance of suits a good tailor makes at $25 to $40. These go at 15, 18 and 20 dollars. THEY FIT. Some times need a few changes. We make any necessary alterations. All made of good wool or pure worsted materials. You'll appreciate the value if you'll get one. BETTER TRY ONE. Don't be induced to buy a cheap suit to order made by the cheap Chicago tailor, for it POSITIVELY CAN'T give satisfaction. It won't hold its shape. It is certainly as bad as the cheapest ready-made. And think! You pay just as much for it as we charge for our best ready-to-put-on suit that will give you satisfaction all the while you are wearing it. Remember also that we will PRESS YOUR CLOTHES, if bought here, free of charge.

On Thursday, June 7th,

we shall offer some of our best $12.50, $15.00 and $18.00 suits—just a few sizes in each lot—at the uniform price of $10.00.

We want to close out all of these broken lines, so don't miss this opportunity. Every suit worth just what we have noted above.

The Paris Exposition :

Cannot equal the Columbian Exposition held in Chicago. Neither can any Flour excel

JENNISON'S

"VERY BEST" FLOUR!

It is one of the best known and most highly praised brands in the world. It has sold upon its merits for years and has a reputation for high quality second to none. It is positively the highest patent made and is a great favorite with our customers, who insist on having Jennison's "Very Best" every time. In buying Flour you cannot afford to take chances by getting a brand unknown to you or any one else. Several batches of poor bread will discourage and disgust any housewife. It pays best to buy Jennison's "Very Best" and be sure of what you are getting. We have just made an exceptional purchase and have reduced the price to 93 cents a sack!

FOR A GOOD, BUT CHEAP FLOUR, WE OFFER :

Jennison's Tip Top at 85c a sack.

Positively the best for the money in the city. A splendid second patent, which is better than many so-called firsts. It has our full guarantee and if you don't want it, bring it back.
